The Reverend Corwin & Nellie Taylor Collection

The photographic images in this collection were preserved for posterity by Rev. Corwin Taylor (left, with daughter) and his wife Nellie Blood-Taylor (right) of Fort Dodge, Iowa, Methodist missionaries to Korea, 1908 to about 1922.

These digital images are donated to the Korean Heritage Library at the University Park Campus of the University Of Southern California, Los Angeles California, by Corwin/Nellie grandson Ewing Bevard Taylor of Rockville, Maryland. This project was undertaken by EBT at the behest of journalist Kyung Won Lee of Rancho Cordova, California. Digital copying work by James Ritchie Jacocks (James Ritchie Associates) of Washington Grove, Maryland.

The original b&w prints and hand-colored slides/transparencies from which the digital images have been made, and the photo descriptions/documentation, were produced by/for the Methodist Episcopal Church, Committee On Conservation And Advance, Chicago Illinois, and distributed to church missionaries.

Ewing Bevard Taylor April, 2005
